TELEMEDIA (ELECTRONIC MEDIA) NEWS REPORTER WORKSHOP

Nashik Shikshan Prasarak Mandals, Late Bindu Ramrao Deshmukh Arts and Commerce Mahila Mahavidhyalaya, Nashik Road in collaboration with Savitribai Phule Pune University Pune Student Development Board Organized Telemedia (Electronic Media) News Reporter Workshop on 7th Feb.2020. The convener of the program Prof. Dr. Lata Pawar introduced the program. He said that the workshop was organized to make the youth aware of the growing importance and need of the media and the need to acquire various linguistic skills to prove themselves. After that Dr. Hari Vinayak Kulkarni expressed his thoughts. He told the history of radio, the need for radio, the memorable activities that were broadcast on the radio during that period. Today, due to the internet, so many different fast-paced media have become available. Yet radio retains its importance. He said that out of the total number of radio stations in the country and abroad, how many are private and how many are government. Vishwas Radio Nashik is a community radio. The uniqueness of community radio is that now that it has increased its frequency, it can be heard in the country and abroad.

The next speaker was Aparna Kshemakalyani. All India Radio Nashik. Aparna Kshemakalyani explained the uniqueness and criteria of respect for a news reporter as a government media. The language skills required to become a news reporter or radio jockey are explained with examples, given the importance of situational news, even when giving voice acting news. If you want to do an interview or a discussion for the radio, you have to spend half an hour on what and how to do it. He explained how to express emotions through voice. For this, fluency in language, fluent speaking, listening to various programs and increasing cognition are very important. At the same time, while preparing any subject, it is very important to know the background behind socio-cultural historical events, to read it continuously, she mentioned the names of well-known reporters. For example, Sudha Narwane, Ravi Kumar, Nikhil Wagle, etc., how to control one's emotions. The students' doubts were then answered. Lunch was served from 1.30 pm to 2.00 pm.

Dr. Dhananjay Deshmukh, Senior Cameraman, Yashwantrao Chavan, Maharashtra Open University, Nashik, explained how to use the camera as per the news. He explained how the cameraman delivers the news online. Explained how the camera creates images, long short close up and the meaning behind it. Also what exactly do you want to show? Why show it? How to show? The idea in your head should be clear. When the news is being aired on television, the picture should be clear as to which scene is to be shown exactly as the shooter is a news writer and the editor is a third, so you want to capture exactly what you are shooting. Some of the clues in the film say that they have to decide which scene to show from a distance and which scene to show from near. Everyone was given tea at four o'clock

Celebration of Krantidin

The NSS unit of the college paid homage to the sacrifices of the freedom fighters. The programme was chaired by the Principal Hon.Dr Leena Pandhare. In her speech she said that on 9th August, 1942 Mahatma Gandhi gave a slogan Quit India and we got the freedom after treacherous efforts taken by immense freedom fighters. India got freedom but today's students would be thinking what is their duty in the post freedom period. In such case it is the duty and responsibility of students and young generation to participate in cleaning drive, service to the poor, patient and elderly people and doing good academic performance during their education period.

The introduction of the programme was given by Dr.Sameer Limbare. In his introduction he said that freedom fighter like Bhagat Singh, Rajguru, Chandrashekhar Azad, Lala Lajpat Rai, Queen of Jhansi, Chaphalkar brothers and many more. Their sacrifice should not go in vain and therefore students should become vigilant citizens so that the country can be proud of them.

The vote of thanks was given by Dr.Jeevan Solunke and compering by Dr.Minal Barve. All the students of the college attended the programme.

Report of Lecture on Balanced Diet & Obesity: 07/09/2019

NSS unit of our college on 7th September 2019 organized a lecture on balanced diet and obesity by Dr.Shalaka Shinde. The programme began with the introduction and welcome of Dr.Shalaka Shinde. The objective of the programme were shared by Dr.Sameer Limbare. Dr Shinde during her lecture explained the importance of six tastes of food that are Sweet, Ambat, Sour, Turat and Spicy. She told the importance of above six tastes in our daily food and digestion. She suggested students' to take natural sweetness in food instead of direct intake of white sugar for eg. Sendriya Gul and Kakvi. Lemon and Amsul should by used in regular diet. Maithi and Karle should be used as vegetables. She also told students' to sit and eat food instead of standing. Local grains available in the perimeter of 100km are more vital for our body than the grains from other states. Kartoli and Suran increase calcium in body and make our bones stronger. Dink and Nagli are also good for health. At last she told students' to avoid tea and between two meals there should be sufficient gap for digestion.

The chairman speech was given by Prof.Bhaskar Narwate. The comparing was done by Sanjana Shinde. Introduction of guest was done by Shruti Bhise. Welcome by Prof.Smita Malve, vote of thanks by Akanksha Lahane. At the end the students shared their personal health problems with Dr.Shalaka Shinde and she answered all their queries.
