

Nashik Shikshan Prasarak Mandal's
Late Bindu Ramrao Deshmukh Arts, Commerce & Science Mahila Mahavidyalaya, Nashik Road

Gender Sensitization Credit Course – TYBA
From May 30, 2023, to June 5, 2023.

The Department of Sociology organized a credit course on "Gender Sensitivity" for TYBA students from May 30, 2023, to June 5, 2023. The course was inaugurated by Ms. Jyoti Aamne, Police Inspector, Women's Security Cell, Nashik City,

On May 30, 2023. She emphasized that security means self-awareness and self-protection. Ms. Aamne highlighted that gender-based discrimination is prevalent everywhere, starting from birth. She encouraged girls to stand on their own feet and take pride in being women. She also emphasized the importance of economic planning, independence, and participation in social movements.

The second session was conducted by Dr. Vinod Nirkhe, who discussed the concept of gender sensitivity and its sociological perspective. He explained how gender-based discrimination is perpetuated in society.

On May 31, 2023, Ms. Shobha Pawar, Women and Child Welfare Department, Nashik, discussed the topic of gender and human trafficking. She warned students about the dangers of human trafficking and the importance of being cautious. The next session was conducted by Ms. Asawari Deshpande, Pravara Medical Trust, Nashik, who discussed the health and education of sex workers and their children. She informed students about the trust's work in Nashik, including providing medical care, education, and protection to sex workers and their children.

On June 1, 2023, Ms. Shobha Pawar conducted another session on gender and human trafficking, where she discussed case studies and provided guidance to students. The next session was conducted by Mr. Avinash Neve, Abhivyakti Sanstha, Nashik, who discussed the topic of understanding gender. He explained how gender-based discrimination is perpetuated through various means, including toys, programs, and social norms.

On June 2, 2023, Mr. Suraj Pawar discussed the topic of gender and market, where he highlighted the issues faced by women in the workforce, including low wages and discrimination. The next session was conducted by Dr. Yogini Raul, Mumbai, who discussed the topic of gender-based differences. She encouraged students to participate in social movements and understand the issues faced by women and marginalized communities.

On June 3, 2023, Dr. Praveen Ghodsewar, Director, Yashwantrao Chavan Maharashtra Open University, Nashik, discussed the topic of media and gender. He explained how media perpetuates gender-based stereotypes and discrimination. The next session was conducted by Dr. Sanjay Sawle, KTHM College, Nashik, who discussed the topic of intersecting sexuality. He explained how social structures perpetuate gender-based discrimination and stereotypes.

On June 4, 2023, Mr. Amol Kale, Pune, discussed the topic of sexuality. He explained how societal norms and values perpetuate gender-based discrimination and stereotypes. The next session was conducted by

Adv. Dr. Anuja Nehe, who discussed the topic of harassment of women at the workplace and relevant laws. She emphasized the importance of women's rights and the need to prevent misuse of laws.

On June 5, 2023, students presented their projects on various topics, and Mr. Avinash Neve evaluated their presentations. The top three students were awarded certificates.

The program concluded with a valedictory function, where Dr. Samir Limbare, Principal, distributed certificates to the students. Dr. Vinod Nirbhavane, Course Coordinator, presented a report on the program and thanked all the participants.

Dr. Sanjay Sawle, KTHM College, Nashik, who discussed the topic of intersecting sexuality.

Disha Mahila Bahu udeshiya sanstha, Nashik Visit

Shobha Pawar, Mahila Balkalyan Vibhag Nashik

Avinash Neve Grup Activity

Adv. Dr. Anuja Nehe, who discussed the topic of harassment of women at the workplace and relevant laws.

Student Presentation

Student Presentation

Dr. Sanjay Sawle, KTHM College, Nashik, who discussed the topic of intersecting sexuality.

