Duties/ Responsibilities of a Mentor:

Prioritize the mentoring session. Mentees invest time preparing for these sessions; therefore, try to prevent other demands from bumping the session from your calendar

1. Set aside time and space. Ensure that you will be uninterrupted during the mentoring session.
2. Prepare for the session. Review any email correspondence and notes you may have from previous sessions.
3. Give full attention to the mentee. Let go of other urgencies and stresses, clear your mind and focus on helping the mentee during the session.
4. Communicate through active listening. Focus fully on the mentee and show active and non-verbal signs of listening.
5. Share resources. Consider and collect any resources that might be useful to the mentee.
6. Share experiences. Be open to sharing mistakes, failures and lessons learned.

You are expected to play different roles like:

- Coach to advise the mentees on how to accomplish their goals
- Sponsor or champion to provide guidance and help increase the mentee's exposure to opportunities
- Teacher to provide learning opportunities
- Protector to provide a safe environment in which the mentee can make mistakes without losing credibility

Duties/ Responsibilities of a Mentor:

1. Prioritize the mentoring session. Mentees invest time preparing for these sessions; therefore, try to prevent other demands from bumping the session from your calendar.
2. Set aside time and space. Ensure that you will be uninterrupted during the mentoring session.
3. Prepare for the session. Review any email correspondence and notes you may have from previous sessions.
4. Give full attention to the mentee. Let go of other urgencies and stresses, clear your mind and focus on helping the mentee during the session.
5. Communicate through active listening. Focus fully on the mentee and show active verbal and non-verbal signs of listening.
6. Share resources. Consider and collect any resources that might be useful to the mentee.
7. Share experiences. Be open to sharing mistakes, failures and lessons learned.

You are expected to play different roles like:

- Coach to advise the mentees on how to accomplish their goals
- Sponsor or champion to provide guidance and help increase the mentee's exposure to new experiences
- Teacher to provide learning opportunities
- Protector to provide a safe environment in which the mentee can make mistakes without losing credibility
- Counselor to enhance the mentee's self esteem through supportive, non-judgmental discussions
- Role model to walk the talk and demonstrate the behaviour necessary for success

Duties/ Responsibilities of a Mentor:

1. Prioritize the mentoring session. Mentees invest time preparing for these sessions: therefore, try to prevent other demands from bumping the session from your calendar.
2. Set aside time and space. Ensure that you will be uninterrupted during the mentoring session.
3. Prepare for the session. Review any email correspondence and notes you may have from previous sessions.
4. Give full attention to the mentee. Let go of other urgencies and stresses, clear your mind and focus on helping the mentee during the session.
5. Communicate through active listening. Focus fully on the mentee and show active verbal and non-verbal signs of listening.
6. Share resources. Consider and collect any resources that might be useful to the mentee.
7. Share experiences. Be open to sharing mistakes, failures and lessons learned.

You are expected to play different roles like:

- Coach to advise the mentees on how to accomplish their goals
- Sponsor or champion to provide guidance and help increase the mentee's exposure to new experiences
- Teacher to provide learning opportunities
- Protector to provide a safe environment in which the mentee can make mistakes without losing credibility
- Counselor to enhance the mentee's self esteem through supportive, non-judgmental discussions
- Role model to walk the talk and demonstrate the behaviour necessary for success

Duties/ Responsibilities of a Mentor:

1. Prioritize the mentoring session. Mentees invest time preparing for these sessions; therefore, try to prevent other demands from bumping the session from your calendar.
2. Set aside time and space. Ensure that you will be uninterrupted during the mentoring session.
3. Prepare for the session. Review any email correspondence and notes you may have from previous sessions.
4. Give full attention to the mentee. Let go of other urgencies and stresses, clear your mind and focus on helping the mentee during the session.
5. Communicate through active listening. Focus fully on the mentee and show active verbal and non-verbal signs of listening.
6. Share resources. Consider and collect any resources that might be useful to the mentee.
7. Share experiences. Be open to sharing mistakes, failures and lessons learned.

You are expected to play different roles like:

- > Coach to advise the mentees on how to accomplish their goals
- > Sponsor or champion to provide guidance and help increase the mentee's exposure to new experiences
- > Teacher to provide learning opportunities
- > Protector to provide a safe environment in which the mentee can make mistakes without losing credibility
- > Connector to help the mentee self-reflect and through your own experiences and observations

Duties/ Responsibilities of a Mentor: Prioritize the mentoring session. Mentees invest time preparing for these sessions; therefore, try to prevent other demands from bumping the session from your calendar.

1. Set aside time and space. Ensure that you will be uninterrupted during the mentoring session.
2. Prepare for the session. Review any email correspondence and notes you may have from previous sessions.
3. Give full attention to the mentee. Let go of other urgencies and stresses, clear your mind and focus on helping the mentee during the session.
4. Communicate through active listening. Focus fully on the mentee and show active verbal and non-verbal signs of listening.
5. Share resources. Consider and collect any resources that might be useful to the mentee.
6. Share experiences. Be open to sharing mistakes, failures and lessons learned.

You are expected to play different roles like:

- IQAC Co-ordinator
- N.S.P.M's Late Bindu Ramrao Deshmukh Arts & Commerce Mahila Mahavidyalaya
- Specialist to guide the mentees on how to accomplish their goals.
- Supporter to provide guidance and help increase the mentee's exposure to new experiences.
- Teacher to provide knowledge and skills.
- Protector to provide a safe environment in which the mentee can make mistakes without losing credibility.
- Counselor to enhance the mentee's self-esteem through supportive, non-judgmental discussions.
- Role model to walk the talk and demonstrate the behaviour necessary for success.
